Yet another feather is added .....!!

ChandrayanPlus is a unique institution for coming film technology. Training is provided in the art, craft, business and technology of film making from story to screen for those who aspire for imprinting their footsteps in the world of celluloid. Chandrayan Plus conducts a comprehensive course which include direction, acting, script writing, cinematography, finance management, publicity, distribution the faculty studded with velvet and pearls of Malayalam Film Industry.

Yet another feather is added to the cap.....!!

In a nut-shell, it is a unique film institute, in the art, craft, business and technology of film making.

It adopts the ancient 'Gurukula' method of teaching. Disciples live with the Gurus to learn, in a strict spiritual, disciplined atmosphere. Yoga, meditation, martial arts, music and other art forms are compulsory for all students along with choreography and music creation. Spiritually charged atmosphere and soul driving motivation are the unique features of the institute. A week long living-together classes every month enable the students to meet and interact with many successful personalities of the film world. Students carry home a lot of assignments to work on, for the rest of the month. They also have to participate in various social activities to mould their commitment to the society.

The contact classes usually start at 5:00am and end 5:00 pm Charges are nominal Scholarships from Ekalavya Charitable Trust will be available for eligible, but financially challenged aspirants. However, the candidates will have to pay for boarding and lodging. A true combination of talent, character, integrity, discipline and hard work are the essential criteria for admission.
